HALL & FOREMAN, INC. ANNOUNCES JULES MILLER AS GENERAL COUNSEL

IRVINE, Calif., January 18, 2006 — Hall & Foreman, Inc. (HFI), an engineering, land planning, surveying, and landscape architecture firm, is pleased to announce the addition of Mr. Jules Miller as general counsel. In this role, Mr. Miller will be responsible for the firm's legal issues, contract review, negotiation and risk management. He will be based out of HFI's corporate headquarters located in Irvine, Calif.

“As HFI grows and expands, we have an increased need to focus on risk management and contractual matters. Jules joins us as our first general counsel,” states HFI's chief executive officer John Hogan, P.E. “We are confident his input and expertise will help guide our growth.”

Mr. Miller earned his A.B. from St. Louis University. He completed his J.D. at the St. Louis University School of Law and earned his LL.M. from George Washington University National Law Center. Mr. Miller has worked in the engineering consulting industry since 1990 and he is a member of the California Bar. He lives with his wife Sheila in Dana Point and enjoys running and cheering the Lakers.
