HALL & FOREMAN, INC. ANNOUNCES GEORGANN BRANNON AS MANAGER OF HUMAN RESOURCES

IRVINE, Calif., May 1, 2003 — Hall & Foreman, Inc. (HFI), an engineering, land planning, surveying, and landscape architecture firm, is pleased to announce the addition of Ms. Georgann Brannon as manager of human resources. She will be based out of HFI's corporate headquarters located in Irvine, Calif. As human resources manager, Ms. Brannon will be responsible for the firm's human resources and administration functions including employee relations, recruitment, employee development/training, and employee compensation/benefit programs.

"As the expansion of the company continues at an exponential rate, we looked to fill our human resource/administration department with an individual who could manage our needs to the next level," states John Hogan, P.E., HFI's chief executive officer and principal. "We look forward to having Ms. Brannon lead these efforts and help guide our growth."

Ms. Brannon is a graduate of Loyola Marymount University in Los Angeles where she earned a Bachelor of Arts degree. Ms. Brannon has held similar positions since 1987 within the savings and loan, music, computer, and semiconductor industries.
